

Telecommunications

- The South African telecommunications sector is the largest and most advanced in Africa and is 99% digital
- Mobile penetration is 66% in terms of subscribers and is the 4th fastest growing mobile communications market in the world
- There are 2 fixed line operators and 3 cellular operators and 6 service providers

South African firms have extensive experience and a proven track record in supplying a wide range of products and services

- Technologically advanced fixed line, wireless and satellite communication technologies
- Innovative rural telecommunications solutions
- Prime contracting on complex projects such as satellites, telecommunications networks and collaborative technologies on hybrid networks
- End-user applications
- Routing systems between fixed and mobile networks
- Microwave, antennae and RFID solutions
- Mobile and self-contained datacentres and remote support

Source URL: <http://www.saecc.org.za/our-industry/telecommunications>